VIDEO: Changes in the Auditor's office

State lawmakers want to change the job description of the Auditor of Accounts, bringing it more in line with what he's doing.
WDEL's Legislative Correspondent Carl Kanefsky has the story.  Video Here

The House of Representatives passed two pieces of legislation Tuesday concerning the office of the Auditor.

Tom Wagner says one piece updates the Auditor's responsibilities in Code, but doesn't necessarily expand or change the job.

The second bill changes the name of the position to Auditor General, since as Wagner says, his current title has no real meaning in the world of auditing or accounting.

Both bills now move to the State Senate.
